Score: San Diego State 8, Nevada 5

Records: SDSU: 7-6 | Nevada 7-5

Next Game: Sunday, March 10 vs. Nevada – 1:00 p.m. – Tony Gwynn Stadium

Notes

- SDSU clinched a series win over Nevada with tonight's win, marking the first time SDSU has beaten Nevada in a three-game series since April 7-9, 2017. It is the first time SDSU has won back-to-back games against the Wolf Pack since March 10-11, 2017.
- SDSU will go for its first weekend sweep of the season tomorrow. SDSU has recorded three weekend sweeps since the last time the team was last swept and are 13-3 in their last 16 games when playing on Sunday. A win tomorrow would also mark as SDSU's first sweep over Nevada since April 5-7, 2013.
- SDSU allowed a season-low three hits, the team's lowest total since allowing two at New Mexico on May 4, 2018.
- SDSU has won seven of their last 11 meetings with Nevada.
- SDSU pitching recorded its eighth 10+ strikeout game of the season in just 13 games. The Aztecs had 13 double-digit strikeout games over 60 games played in 2018.
- Casey O'Sullivan upped his strikeouts per nine innings ratio to a remarkable 17.18 after recording three strikeouts in 2.1 innings. Out of a possible 33 outs, O'Sullivan has recorded 21 of his outs via strikeout.
- Matt Rudick and Julian Escobedo both recorded their team-leading fifth multiple hit games of the season.
- Angelo Armenta extended his hitting streak to a team season-best eight games.
- Jacob Maekawa extended his on-base streak to a team season-best nine games.
